Who Won the Week?

Greg Razer – Confirmed to a six-year term on the State Tax Commission. Fewer hours, more pay. That;s winning the week.

Hannah Kelly – In a business full of folks always calculating the political angles, it’s refreshing to watch someone willing to take slings and arrow from every direction for doing what they think is right.

Will Scharf – Three months to the primary, he seems well-positioned to nab the big whale: a Trump endorsement.

Tom and Brittany Robbins – The husband-wife lobbyist team hustled for the KillTheFill PAC and helped push the compromise landfill bill to the governor’s desk.
