Who Won the Week?

Mike Moon – The court’s DeSoto v Parson decision lays a firm hand in favor of bills only having a single subject. One lobbyist was exactly in line with the admonitions Moon has hurled on the Senate floor.

Ben Brown – The Senate 26 candidate seems to be a man made for these times. He looks to ride the anti-mask wave all the way to Jefferson City. Anti-mask could be the new Tea Party for GOP candidates...

Al Watkins – The quotable lawyer seems to have an endless supply of clients here in Missouri. Rep. Tricia Derges is the latest, but won’t be the last.

Scott Sifton – The removal of Jay Nixon looming will make it easier for Sifton to make his case to Dem donors.
