Who Won the Week?

Dan Houx – Prospects for the sports betting bill to be a top priority rise as Senate leadership promises to deliver on the issue.

Lincoln Hough and Andrew Koenig – Lead the Senate through the tax cut compromise, offering hope that next session can be less antagonistic.

Eric Schmitt – SurveyUSA’s poll echoes the Remington/MOScout poll from last month showing Schmitt with an 11-point lead. Six weeks left and no catalyst on the horizon to change the trajectory of the race.

Cindy O’Laughlin – While she’s by no means a favorite in the Senate Floor Leader race, observers are now seeing a path for her to pull off an upset win – if she can make it past the first round of voting.
