Who Won the Week?

Mike Cierpiot and Tony Luetkemeyer – Sponsors of the first Senate bills to cross the legislative finish-line and head to the governor’s desk.

Dems in CD-2 – I’ve been skeptical of Dems ability to make this competitive, but the combination of Roe being overturned and no new congressional map passed could change my mind.

Eric Greitens – The Vance victory in Ohio could embolden Donald Trump to pick Greitens as his guy in Missouri.

Like practically everyone – The budget seemed to have something for everyone. Democrats were sending out press releases crowing about the line items they were able to secure. Republicans did the same, even fiscal conservatives could point to the tax credits coming.
