Who Won the Week?

Shamed Dogan – He’s rumored to be the Republican County Executive candidate after all. With upset victor Katherine Pinner dropping out, Dogan – and his $200K war-chest – is the obvious choice to pick up the banner.

Eric Schmitt – The exit of John Wood removes the one wildcard which could created divisions about Republican ranks.

Lauren Arthur – Pretty much anytime a state senator has the governor from the opposing party tweeting at you, you come away the winner. More so when get the better of the exchange.

Cops – They went all-in to prevent Gary Wiegert from getting the nomination in House 101 and prevailed.
