Who Won the Week?

Will Scharf – With Donald Trump increasingly moving back into the center ring of the political 2024 landscape, Scharf finds a way to insert himself into the indictment debate – and catches Trump’s attention.

Lucas Kunce – Facing a serious challenge to US Senate bid from fellow Democrat Wesley Bell, Kunce had a good first week with the AFL-CIO’s “re-endorsement,” and the revelation that Bell’s campaign is still sitting on the launching pad.

Senate Dems – The American Conservative Union issued their ratings of Missouri legislators. And one Republican says it’s “100% certain these scores will be used to setup primaries and extend the Republican internal struggle.” That’s good news for the Dems who depend on Republican in-fighting to impede the GOP agenda.

Michelle Hataway – Tapped to take over the Department of Economic Development.
