Who Won the Week?

Senate Democrats – It’s been said a hundred times this session, but I’ll say it again: the Republican infighting is the gift that keeps giving for Democrats.

Trudy Busch Valentine – A new hope for the Dems. Valentine brings the beautiful combination of resources and no voting record to the race.

Jay Ashcroft – His aligned PAC lands $665,000 at the end of the quarter in a sign that Ashcroft realizes the 2024 gubernatorial campaign has already started.

Former senators – Whether folks are hearing whispers of Jim Lembke directing the Conservative Caucus or shaking their fists at the tracts of Mike Cunningham, senators may get termed, but they’re still in the game.
