Who Won the Week?

Kay Hoflander – Elected chair of the MOGOP in 2019, she inherited a party in debt and disarray from Greitens’ scandals. This week she saw the Electors cast their votes for President Trump, highlighting the huge wins MO Republicans had in November.

Gabriel Gore – Mentioned as a possible replacement for resigning U.S. Attorney Jeff Jensen.

Todd Graves – The Republican Party power player takes the reins of a new nine-figure foundation aimed at improving education.

LIHTCers – The state program restarts. It’s been a long road back.

Scott Sifton – Appears to have a lock on the Democratic nomination for US Senate in 2022 – if he wants it. We’ll see...
