Who Won the Week?

Andrew Bailey – The explosion of coverage about the gender transition whistleblower demonstrated the power of incumbency as Bailey was able to jump into the breaking news and win lots of free press.

Lane Roberts – His tireless work, considerable patience and meticulous attention to taking the temperature of his committee-members paid off as the House passed his high-profile, anti-crime bill.

Phil Christofanelli – The St. Charles rep running to replace Sen. Bill Eigel in Senate 2 announced a fundraiser. The headliner, Corey DeAngelis, is a big deal in education reform circles, and suggests that national groups will invest substantially in his race.

Medical Marijuana Dispensaries – Now serving the general population, they're seeing their business boom. The recreational use IP is paying off big time.
