

Who Won the Week?

Bill Eigel – He managed to get a viral video doing exactly what the majority of Republican primary voters want to see. For many people the first time they heard his name it is associated with "burning the swamp".

Pro-Lifers – With the pro-choice community split, the odds for an initiative petition (that can pass) making the ballot has decreased.

Gabe Gore – The early results – a doubling of criminal cases – show that Gore was the right person for the job. There is no substitute for engaged, competent leadership.

Socialists – Anyone still like the free market? We're in a topsy-turvy world where Republicans think free trade is bad, and Josh Hawley wants the government to decide credit card rates.
