Who Won the Week?

John Payne, the campaign manager for the Amendment 3 effort, has been a workhorse raising money, tapping a seemingly endless string of huge checks. Scott Dieckhaus, the quarterback for the Anti-3 advocates, has doggedly built a coalition across the spectrum. The question: who will win next week?

Mike Parson – The polls indicate that the governor will have two more appointments to make next year. Truly amazing. He will have made five statewide office appointments in his six years as governor!

Jessica Piper – Win, lose, or draw next week, the rural fundraising wunderkind has reminded Dems that there's honor in taking their message to rural Missouri.
