Who Won the Week?

Nicole Galloway – Continues her dogged pursuit of facts in Clay County, and inspires fear from nearby local officials who don't want the bright light of the Auditor shining on their behavior.

Missouri Republicans – With recession fears fading, their number one campaign issue becomes a safer bet and a stronger message.

Kent Scism – Kicks off his Senate 3 with a money in the bank, a solid fundraising event, and no declared Republican or Democratic opponents.

Jim Lembke – The point person of CL PAC and the hundreds of thousands of dollars in its kitty, Lembke is now more of a power player than when he was a senator.

Lobbying corps – Title IX reform rears its head again. Last session the effort employed dozens of lobbyists. When you hear the gravy train a-comin, hop on board....
