Who Won the Week?

Sam Page – MOScout’s polling shows Page starts with a lead in the County Executive’s race. But maybe more important, about $\frac{3}{4}$ of the voters approve of the county’s response to the coronavirus. That puts him in a strong position for this August’s race.

Planned Parenthood – Wins their tussle with the state over licensing.

David Wood – The latest legislator to get an appointment from the governor. And the child advocacy community seems happy with him as the new director of the Children’s Division of DSS.

Anti-PDMPers – Franklin County’s exit from the Prescription Drug Monitoring Program provides a powerful data point to those who say its importance has been overstated.
