Who Won the Week?

Doug Beck – Prevailed as the Senate Dem’s new assistant floor leader. That positions him to succeed Sen. John Rizzo as minority leader in two years.

Cindy O’Laughlin – First woman Senate majority leader. Quite a journey. When she arrived, many figured her conservatism would place her on the fringe. Now here she is as floor leader.

John Patterson – First non-white House Majority Floor Leader. When he arrived, many thought the doctor would struggle to fit in among the farmer-heavy House Republican Caucus. Yet here he is.

Ed reformers – They’ve got bona-fide reformers in the key House and Senate floor leader slots, and potentially Andrew Koenig taking over the Senate Education Committee.
