

Who Won the Week?

MOGOP – The state party makes the smart decision to filter out their problems on the front end, blocking antisemite Steve West, and indicted Tricia Derges from filing for office.

Senate – Glimmers of normalcy, the upper chamber passed a couple of pieces of legislation, including the enormous supplemental budget. Will it last?

Bill Eigel – Two years after Buddy Hardin was the treasurer of a PAC which spent over $250,000 against Eigel's re-election, Hardin is running for state representative in St. Charles. I don't know if Eigel wears a watch, but I'd guess it's probably about a quarter til payback time.

Justin Brown – As the senator preps for re-election he's blessed with multiple candidates. It's best to be either unopposed, or really opposed. This way your critics will likely split their vote.
