Who Won the Week?

Senate leadership – First, CLEANER passed out, and now a compromise reached on tort reform. They’re checking off major priorities before Spring break and keeping the chambers’ denizens relatively happy. Now let’s see what magic trick they can pull with PDMP....

Rural Republicans – Dems appear to have narrowed their focus this year to swing district they can win, the so-called “Claire districts” where McCaskill beat Hawley in 2018. That means a lot of rural Republicans will get a pass.

Jeanette Mott Oxford – Announces that she’s pulling back from her executive director duties to focus on what she loves. She’ll become Empower Missouri’s Policy & Organizing Director, and the organization will seek a new ED.

Zach Brunnert – Gets a new gig ad heads to Minnesota to serve as Director of State Legislative Policy for CDI under task-master Kit Crancer.
