Who Won the Week?

Caleb Rowden and Andrew Koenig – The long-awaited filing of David Lenihan gives Republicans a potential self-funder in Senate 1. And that may draw Democratic resources away from efforts to unseat these incumbents.

Holly Rehder – Senate passed their version of her prescription drug monitoring program. It's a compromise she finds acceptable. And it means she's much closer to accomplishing her top priority.

MO Dems – Even though this week's poll doesn't show much movement, one imagines that recent events (Biden's resurgence, Trump's initial downplaying of coronavirus, the luffing economy with exploding budget deficit) have improved their 2020 hand.

Titus Bond – Remington's MO presidential preference poll hits its mark giving MOScout readers an accurate assessment of the race.
