Who Won the Week?

Rob Vescovo – Standing up to a governor never hurts a speaker with his caucus.

David Gregory – Shows he's serious about a statewide run for auditor with $200K deposited into his PAC.

Cindy O'Laughlin and Tony Luetkemeyer – It appears that the Senate will be back in business next week, and their bills are in the cue for floor debate.

Raychel Proudie – The House Democrat finally lands the chairmanship with this session as Vescovo names the Urban Issues Committee.

Uniting Missouri PAC consultants – As one cynical lobbyist wrote me when I wrote about Uniting MO continuing its work... "What it Means is that a couple people will continue to make a couple calls a week on behalf of the governor to companies and interest groups who cannot say no so that a couple allies of the governor can continue collecting the proceeds of said calls on a monthly basis for the next few years."
