Who Won the Week?

LGBTQ Community – Huge win from the Supreme Court may give some momentum to the stalled Missouri Nondiscrimination Act (MONA) in the state legislature.

Those 2013 GOP Senators – In 2013, the state senate passed MONA at the end of session. Nine Republicans joined the Democratic minority. Time has proven they were on the right side of history. Among those GOP senators were Mike Parson and Mike Kehoe.

John Hancock – Another vote of confidence for the veteran Republican operative who gets a fresh $500K for the pro-Parson PAC he’s running.

MO Dems – Last week’s MOScout poll showed Trump’s current lead in Missouri is half what it was 2016. Many Dems think that “weakness” for Republicans could mean some suburban House districts swinging to blue in November.
