Who Won the Week?

House leaders – Navigated the competing pressures from the governor, the factions of their caucus and the Democrats to deliver the Senate five bills, all among the silliness of Rep. Nick Schroer’s residency claim.

CLEAN advocates – Scored a big win in the first round of court battles over ballot language. And while the appeal continues, they’re piling up cash for a campaign: $600K this week.

Jolie Justus – Former senator and KC mayoral candidate lands the general counsel position at Truman Medical Centers working for her old colleague Charlie Shields.

Claudia Kehoe – One Republican described her as “the MVP of summer caucus. It was the first time a lot of representatives have had the chance to hang out with her and she made a great impression. Warm, inviting, fun...”
