Who Won the Week?

OCTOBER QUARTER EDITION

Lauren Arthur – Hits the $100K+ mark for a second quarter in row with no declared Republic opponent.

Deb Lavender – Outraises the incumbent senator by a factor of three. This is a tough flip for Dems, but Lavender's pushing.

Tommie Pierson – Establishes himself as the front-runner in the primary to succeed Gina Walsh.

CL PAC – We'd be dismissing the campaigns of Mike Moon and Rick Brattin except for David Steward's pile of cash.

Robert Ross – Chugs away with another solid quarter. His opponent Van Kelly will either need to keep loaning himself money, or start fundraising.

Tim Jones - Leadership for America may live on in perpetuity thanks to the brilliant investing of Lucas Tomicki.
