

Who Won the Week?

Boeing – The aerospace giant says, “jobs” and everyone snaps to attention.

Sarah Unsicker – A willingness to call her own party’s poor judgement wins her kudos for putting principle over partisanship.

Cindy O’Laughlin – Her fist-shaking at the Public Service Commission ignite a debate over energy policy, if nothing else.

Anti-IP Reformers – Realtors preparing a campaign committee show that they’re in the fight for the long haul. They’re still engaged and vigilant in making sure the IP process remains accessible.

Megan Price – Joins the Missouri Workforce Development Board.
