Who Won the Week?

Wesley Bell – Picked up some labor endorsements this week, well on his way to creating a coalition of the disgruntled and making CD-1 a real live race to watch. Both were viewed as critical funding for high-paying union jobs.

Lobbyists playing defense next session – Three words: Missouri Freedom Caucus.

Crystal Quade – Gets the Planned Parenthood endorsement, while Republicans debate whether a woman having an abortion should be charged with murder. So far, all's going according to her plan to have abortion be the central issue of 2024.

Brad Hudson – Travis Smith bows out of the Senate 33 race, giving Hudson the unrivaled front-runner position.
