

Who Won the Week?

Mark McCloskey – It appears he may be on the cusp of parlaying his fifteen-minutes of fame into a semi-credible Senate campaign. That’s someone who knows how to seize an opportunity.

Tom Hannegan – While it seems that MONA is dead this legislative session, the successful discharge petition demonstrated that there’s a bipartisan group of supporters and gives them a leg up down the road.

Travis Fitzwater – The expulsion of a member for the first time in 150 years sends a very strong message from the House Ethics Committee.

Hannah Kelly – While most every other legislator will be clawing to pass their bill during the next three weeks, Kelly got to watch the governor sign two of her bills this week.
