Who Won the Week?

Mike Kehoe - $200,000 contribution from Jeanne Sinuefield to his PAC shows the importance of personal relationships in the world of politics.

Tom Dempsey – From the demise of Pelopidas the former Senate Pro Tem founds his own lobbying firm, First Capitol Advisors.

CLEAN advocates – MOScout’s poll shows support for the redistricting plan at a tepid 44% even before the CLEAN campaign begins its onslaught.

Nicole Galloway – The governor’s COVID diagnosis limits Parson’s campaigning, and puts the administration’s handling of the coronavirus back in the spotlight.

Ann Wagner – Holds on to a thread of a lead in the latest MOScout poll. If she can survive this cycle, redistricting is coming to potentially give her a bit easier district in 2022.
