

Who Won the Week?

Jay Ashcroft – Getting sued gets you earned media just as well as suing folks. And Ashcroft has been getting sued – on ESG, on library censorship, on abortion IP language.

Angela Mosley – It’s looking like a Mosely Family Dynasty to carry on the Elbert Walton political machine. Sen. Mosley’s children have started committees to run in House 68 and House 75.

Mike Parson – Sold-out Ham Breakfast confirms he’s “king of the state fair and of Missouri’s ag community.” Plus, Hallway thinks his line-item vetoes are safe from overrides next month.

Denny Hoskins – It sounds like Caleb Rowden is deciding not to run for SOS, and Shane Schoeller gets name-checked by far-right pillow guy Mike Lindell. Campaign’s going OK for Hoskins so far.
