Who Won the Week?

Jay Wasson – Filed his huge quarter early showing over $800,000 in cash. This raises the bar and may quickly collapse the race as other candidates will suddenly not look viable.

Eric Greitens – Continues to lead the field with six months left in the race. This week a ruling went against his nemesis Kim Gardner and fuels the hope he'll get some ammo to prove his resignation was base on a WITCH HUNT.

Vicky Hartzler – Keeps ticking up ever so slightly in Remington/MOScout polls. She's well positioned within striking range. And maybe she has an inside track on a potential Hawley endorsement? We'll see...

Republican auditor nominee – Can't beat someone with no one. And right now, MO Dems have no one running for auditor.
