Who Won the Week?

Pro-Choice advocates – The Ohio results buoy hopes that a similar outcome could happen in Missouri in November.

Early Childhood Education – Ahead of a session which has most people pessimistic, child care and early childhood education appear to be the consensus issues supported across the spectrum.

Wesley Bell – Indications of national money preparing to engage against Congresswoman Cori Bush and (so far) no Democratic primary made it a good week for Bell.

Lobbyists on cold mornings – The new metal detectors at the capitol promise no more long lines to get through security.
