Who Won the Week?

Will Scharf – Big fundraising number. And if the Federalist Society money comes in, as some think it will, this could be only the beginning of the Scharf fundraising parade.

Mike Parson – “Not Done Yet” was the perfect theme for a governor’s State of the State. While a lot of talk is already focusing on 2024, having billions to spend is a good way to stave off lame duck status.

MO Dems – Probably the most times they’ve applauded during a State of the State address since Jay Nixon was on the dais.

Scott Rupp – Takes the gavel at the Public Service Commission.

Eric Schmitt – the boy from Bridgeton was inaugurated into the exclusive 100-member club called the United State Senate.
