Who Won the Week?

Dem Legislators – Talk that the governor won't call a special session for redistricting can only help the Dems as they navigate another session as the superminority.

Republican consultants – Roy Blunt's retirement transformed this year from a snoozer to a fish-jumping-in-the-boat kind of year. Candidates, candidates, everywhere... Just this week: Kalenda Bruce announces CD-4, Jay Wasson tells folks he's in CD-7, J Eggleston puts $100K into his state senate committee and Aaron Griesheimer declares for Senate 26. Whew.

Rural MO – The governor announces $400 million to help bring high-speed internet to Missourians that the market has ignored.

Steven Tilley – Business must be good to be diversifying into the airplane-hanger business.
