

Who Won the Week?

Eric Greitens – Spending the primary season campaigning out of state, and running against the 2020 certified election results might sound wacky, but it also might work.

Washington University – Makes a huge announcement that it will add $1 billion dollars into its financial aid programs. The move will silence detractors who wondered what good their burgeoning endowment served.

AT Government Strategies – The government relations arm of Armstrong Teasdale nabs a prime location as it moves its office to High Street.

Senate Democrats – Mike Moon tells folks his nickname for Senate Pro Tem Dave Schatz is nicknamed “Tax Hike Dave.” Nothing better for Dems than Republicans who can’t get along.

Rudi Keller – His video of the public execution of illegal gaming machines goes viral with over 260,000 views.
