Who Won the Week?

Aaron Griesheimer - Lands the chairmanship of one of the more consequential committees, Emerging Issues. And he's only a sophomore.

Barbara Washington – The only Democratic Freshman Senator to score a seat on the powerful Appropriations Committee.

Lincoln Hough – Maybe he smiled as the Dems went weak on Price? One Republican texted me it was a “huge gift” from Minority Leader Crystal Quade if she should decide to challenge his re-election in two years.

Sheila Solon – Days after her term ends, she gets a nice job with the Parson administration as Acting Director of the Division of Professional Registration.

David McCracken – Flotron McIntosh's workhorse lobbyist hit the big 4-0 birthday this week.
