Who Won the Week?

Kathy Swan – Back in the game as she’s appointed by Gov. Mike Parson to the state Labor and Industrial Relations Commission.

Kenny Edgar – It’s hard to beat an incumbent, but Edgar appears on track to do just that in South St. Louis County. However, this is now a swing district, and Republicans have a strong candidate ready for November.

Dan Houx – Chatter starting up about Houx potentially headed to the Senate if Brattin wins the 4-CD race.

David Winton – Wins the lobbying contract to rep the state’s most populous county, St. Louis County, in Jefferson City.
