Who Won the Week?

Cody Smith – While there will be dozens of small pitched battles on the budget in the coming week, Smith was the prime force behind the biggest shift in the budget: no Medicaid expansion.

Tishaura Jones – A productive visit to capitol shows how her Jeff City experience is already working for St. Louis.

Jeanie Riddle – Not to the finish line yet, but getting the professional registration bill through the Senate gauntlet was impressive display of determination and patience.

The tatted – Springfield Police Department loosens their requirements to aid recruiting and now allows officers to “sport visible tattoos on their arms.”
