Who Won the Week?

Mike Kehoe – Ashcroft is still the front-runner; Eigel is still the wildcard. But Kehoe appears to have increased his money lead in the last three months which is probably the most important factor he can control.

Chris Dinkins – Dinkins has gotten a good start to her Senate campaign. An early check from Rex doesn't hurt.

Kayla Hahn – A revision to the Evergy time of use rates implementation gives a huge boost to her upcoming confirmation hearing in January.

Caleb Rowden – Jonathan Ratliff says that Rowden has 7-figure commitments lined up. That's as strong pre-announcement announcement as you can make before jumping into a statewide race.
