Who Won the Week?

Mike Parson – Another bundle of big checks into his PAC two weeks before the close of the quarter.

Nicole Galloway – Every week seems to bring a new audit uncovering some malfeasance in the state, and in the meanwhile she continues to expose the Clay County Commission as a pair of bungling clowns.

Mike Moon – May seem wacky to those in the bubble, but he knows how to get free press, and he lives in the far-right lane – perfect for a GOP primary.

Karla Eslinger – Gets serious about her senate run with a $150K self-fund.

Rod Jetton - It's been a long and winding road for the former speaker, but he finds love again and shares his new marriage on Facebook with old friends.
