Who Won the Week?

Paul Wieland – The JeffCo senator is becoming an impact player with four weeks left in session. First by attaching a pro-life amendment to the FRA tax renewal, and then by stomping his feet at the Graves appointment. He’s one to watch this final month of session.

Dems in the Senate – The Republican supermajority doesn’t seem so super right now. The fault lines are there, if they can exploit them.

Katie Graham – The former intern showed grit, courage and gumption as she testified for HB 1183 this week.

Bill White – Withstood the hours of questioning and saw his water ISRS bill through the Senate.

Rob Vescovo – The speaker wins praises for his consistent zero-tolerance policy in House ethics.
