

Who Won the Week?

Thompson Communications, Axiom Strategies, and Victory Enterprises – According to numbers from campaign finance filings, these firms combined to haul in over $10 million from work in Missouri this cycle.

Eric Greitens – Feels like we’re living in era of the political opportunism. That could be his superpower heading into the 2022 cycle.

Children’s advocates – The early feedback on a plan to streamline childhood services is that it would eliminate fragmentation and increase accountability.

Holly Rehder and Jason Bean – High expectations for these two incoming senators from the MOScout lobbying survey.

James Harris – Named a co-chair of the steering committee for the governor’s inauguration.
