

New Legislators Guide

Prepared November 4, 2020

About Missouri Scout

Missouri Scout is a private news service providing political intelligence and Call. Started in 2007, Missouri Scout has become the underground tip-sheet for Missouri state politics.

Monday through Friday, subscribers receive Daily Updates that include rumors, overlooked facts, and analysis about current events. These updates are almost entirely fresh dispatches with information that have yet to be reported anywhere else.

Saturday, MOScout publishes The Weekender. It contains the exclusive MOScout Weekly Poll, which provides opinion surveys on timely topics and races. Polling is conducted by Titus Bond at Remington Research; The Hallway Index, a survey of Missouri lobbyists which gives a look at sentiment from “inside the bubble;” and the ever-popular Who Won the Week.

On Sundays, subscribers receive The Sunday6, an enlightening collection of graphs, charts and other visuals from the week.

Subscribers may also opt-in to the Weekly Summary which they may forward to clients and colleagues.

Subscribers include lobbyists and government relations executives, but also activists, consultants, legislators, and donors. The cost is $985/year. Monthly subscriptions are also available. If you'd like to know more about subscribing, send me an email at dave@moscout.com.

About Drebes

In addition to Missouri Scout, Dave Drebes was founder of Arch City Chronicle. According to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, it was “the industry newsletter for the Lou’s political insiders.” He was named one of St. Louis’ Most Influential People (2007), received the Media Award from the Missouri Association for Social Welfare (2006), the President’s Award from the Metropolitan Press Club of St. Louis (2006). His parents must be proud. Drebes also writes a regular column in the St. Louis Business Journal covering Missouri state politics.

Rick Roeber - District 34

From BarefootRick: Dedicated as an infant in the First Methodist Church of Moody Texas in early 1956, Rick grew up in and out of church, lacking a firm foundation that ultimately led to his waywardness. Rick accepted the Lord Jesus in 1971 at Grace Temple Missionary Baptist Church in Arlington Texas at 15 years old. After several more years of searching, he rededicated his life to the Lord Jesus in May 1976. During 1976-77, he attended Capernwray Bible School in Estes Park Colorado, receiving a certificate of completion. In 1978, he allowed himself to be wooed once again by the world. It would be another 14 years of trying to reestablish his faith while dealing with homelessness, alcohol and drug addiction before surrendering to the Lord. Rick recommitted his life to Christ in March 1992.

Tim Taylor - District 48

Tim Taylor

From his Facebook page: I enlisted in the United States Air Force on April 1, 1987. The military suited me... I completed NCO Preparatory School in 1990. The first Gulf War extended my enlistment several months, and I returned to Missouri in July of 1991 with an Honorable discharge and as a Sergeant (E4).

In the years preceding my enlistment in the military, I began volunteering with the Boonville Fire Department. My dad was one of two Assistant Chiefs for the department and I was raised with the traditions of the fire department. When I returned home from the military, I once again began volunteering with Boonville's department. The idea that making firefighting a career began to creep into my thoughts.

Two short months after returning to Missouri, I met the woman who would become my wife. Dawn and I met in one of the traditional ways young people meet in Boonville. We were introduced at a wedding party at the Rod and Gun Club, what is now the Knights of Columbus. We married in 1993 in Arrow Rock, MO, and purchased our first house that same year. It was a historic home on 8th Street in Boonville... In 1997, the Columbia Fire Department offered me a job and I accepted. I served in every rank up to Captain, with the bulk of my 21+ years split between Stations Two and Eight. I served many years on the executive board, including president of Columbia Professional Firefighters, Local 1055.

From his campaign website: Michael was born and raised in Affton, right off Heege Rd. At age 15, his first job was a dishwasher at Happy Joes. Michael attended the Affton School District until his Junior year of high school when he was recruited to Christian Brother College for theater arts. Michael grew up performing in the St. Louis area and performed on stages like The Muny, The Fox Theater and was blessed to have also performed in the White House. While attending Lindenwood University Michael was cast in a Broadway show and moved to NYC to pursue his dream. In 2001, Michael came back to St. Louis and became a teacher where he was nominated for COCA's wall of fame... When Michael found out there was a possibility of a housing development replacing Tower Tee in closed door dealings, he took action. Michael began to mobilize the community, speak to the St. Louis County Council, made yard signs and began knocking on doors. He refused to accept it was a done deal. Michael organized town halls with elected officials and kept up this hard work for 18 months. His efforts paid off and in May of 2019, Tower Tee was saved and is coming back.

Bishop Davidson - District 130

From his campaign website: I was raised in a Christ-centered home by two loving parents. My dad is a public school teacher at Wanda Gray Elementary, and my mom started her own small business--Access Potential Therapy Services--when I was a young boy. I am one of 9 children and have loved every minute of it.

After graduating from Republic High School, I went on to study History and Classics at the University of Missouri. Despite boycotts and protests, I made the most out of my time, which included a stint with the Heritage Foundation in Washington, DC...

Currently, I'm growing my small business--Pelion Learning LLC--which offers educational services to families throughout Greene County. I remain involved in my community by hosting English Line Dances, volunteering with organizations like Missouri Boys State and Baptist Hill Assembly, and being an engaged member at Ridgecrest Baptist Church.

From his campaign website: “My grandfather was a postman, my father a dentist who never turned anyone away because they couldn’t pay.

I am a small businessman. I coach high school sports and work my family’s farm. I chose to stay here and invest in Southern Missouri because I believe in our way of life and our people.

I am a patriot. I proudly stand for the National anthem, I believe we should honor our veterans and make no apologies to those who think we should feel guilty for being a patriot or a Christian.

As a Constitutional Conservative, I will always fight for the unborn, always stand up for our Second Amendment Rights, and always vote to protect our property and privacy rights. I will oppose new taxes and support cutting government waste.”

Brian Seitz - District 156

From his campaign website: An Army Veteran, I served as a soldier of the distinguished 82nd Airborne Division, located at Fort Bragg N.C... Following my tour of duty, I took advantage of the educational opportunities available to me, graduating from Southwest Missouri State University with a four year degree in Communications/Public Relations. I was also elected the President of the College Republicans, establishing the largest ever group in Missouri college history. While in college, I met the love of my life and soon to be wife, Valerie.... We have been married 32 years, and have 3 grown children Daniel, Taylor and Reagan....

My career path in Branson has seen me create, own, and operate Music Country News, Branson's premiere monthly newspaper in the 1990's and beyond. Wearing virtually ALL of the hats, I helped promote the areas Music and Live Entertainment venues, and my passion to do so remains to this day.

Most importantly, after almost 30 years of Bible teaching at various area churches, most notably First Baptist Church of Branson, I was called to pastor Sovereign Grace Baptist Church, a small gathering of believers who put God's Word as the central facet of their lives.

Currently I manage Branson's multi-million dollar carwash, Splash Carwash.
