

Who Won the Week?

Cindy O’Laughlin – The Hallway may think she’s sitting on a “ticking time-bomb,” but so far she’s kept the Senate working one day at a time.

Missouri Association of Trial Attorneys – Huge show of strength this week, as the session’s tort reform bill suffered a bipartisan filibuster.

Brad Christ – Freshman state representative does a fine job on the floor handling one of the hottest topics (state takeover of STL’s police) this session.

Scott Giles – Some folks clamor for the spotlight. But Giles has a truly special talent: the ability to disappear at just the right moment. Funny how MOHELA is at the center of the effort to block President Joe Biden’s student loan cancellation and yet the organization’s executive director has no comment and is nowhere to be found.
