Who Won the Week?

Mary Elizabeth Coleman – Another strong week for MEC in the building delivering for the pro-life agenda, and grabbing free press in the process. This time with her handling the bill to statutorily defund Planned Parenthood.

House Dems – With the mighty Jason Rosenbaum reporting that there’s little chance of the pro-choice IP being certified in time to make the August ballot, House Dems’ chances of picking up seats in the November improves.

Crystal Quade – Likewise, the Quade path has always depended on a topsy-turvy November turnout due to Dobbs fallout. One Republican tells me that putting abortion on the November ballot takes the general election for governor “from a snooze fest to a dog fight.”

Casey Wasser – One week after the Senate stumbled to approve Sen. Tony Luetkemeyer’s SB 1351, the COO of the Soybean Association went to bat for the bill and Senate reconsidered and passed it.
