Who Won the Week?

Jefferson City bars and restaurants – Get the reopening order from Cole County just in time for the legislature’s return.

Mike Moon – Grabs some free press by leading the Reopen Parade, and starts with a small lead in his August primary.

Holly Rehder – There’s a fair amount of disagreement about what should be included in the last three weeks of session, but it seems everyone agrees that passing Rehder’s PDMP is part of the plan.

Jim Moody – For a former budget director turned lobbyist, a budget crisis is a once-in-decade moment to use his expertise, correctly foreseeing the coronavirus sending revenues into the red.

John Combest – Who does the governor’s office turn to when they don’t have time to read something, but need a one-line summary with a right-center spin? Now we know: the peerless John Combest.
