Who Won the Week?

Eric Greitens – Still has the touch. Reports this week said he'd separated another gazillionaire from millions of dollars to help fund a pro-Greitens PAC.

Scott Fitzpatrick – According to this weekend's Remington/MOScout poll, it's a wide-open auditor's race on the Republican side. But Fitzpatrick, as a statewide elected official, clearly starts in the lead with the most name ID.

Republicans Taking "Tough" Votes – Also in the poll, few Republican primary voters (14%) watched the recent special session closely, or think that there are too many RINOs in the GOP (17%).

Aaron Baker and Jonathan Ratliff – Can't hurt your business as a campaign consultant to be one of the commissions to drawing the lines.
